Class of 1910-Miss s Mary Morton Newell, Julia Duvall Rice, Lucy Gordon Quaintance Ada Frances Emmitt, Irene Martin Turper and Emma Greer Gordon; Messrs. Hamlet Cecil Sharp, George Almar Dodson and Boyd

The eighth year of Miss Gordon's Training School came to a close vesterday and last evening the graduation exercises were held at Washington Opera-house, being, as usual, one of the most delightful of the season's affairs. Miss Gordon has quite a large and successful school, and the past session has been one of especial merit in many respects. The report of the pupils throughout the year has been very gratifying and marked interest has been shown in every department of the school work, of which Rev. W. W. Akers, in his brief

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health; The discharges not excessive or infrequent; Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you. They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

L. M. Lloyd, farmer, R. F. D. No. 5, Maysville, Ky., says: "I am only too pleased to tell of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills and hope that it may be the means of helping other sufferers from kidney trouble to find relief. About five years ago my kidneys suddenly became disordered and for several months I was bothered by constant, dull pains across my loins. When I stooped or lifted, sharp twinges shot through my body and caused the most intense suffering. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and began using them. They effected a complete cure, and since then I have not had backache or any other symptom of kidney trouble."

Dedicated, and Ushers in a New and Progressive Era—Large Crowd Present and Imposing Ceremonies

Kentucky took an advanced step yesterday when the new State Capitol Building was dedicated with fitting ceremonies in the presence of a large crowd. The new structure stands complete, and only the landscaping and terracing remain to be done. This will require an outlay of $200,000 more, making the entire cost of the building over $2,000,000. Its interior fittings and furnishings compare favorably with any building in the world, and such a display of art and beauty is bound to have an elevating effect upon the people.

BY SPECIAL REQUEST!

We shall have with us on Saturday, June 4th, for one day only, Miss Margaret Kent, the special representative of the Home Journal Patterns. We hope that the ladies who did not meet her on her last trip here will avail themselves of this opportunity of gaining Miss Kent's knowledge and practical use of patterns during her stay with us. She will take great pleasure in showing that the "Home Journal Patterns" are superior to all others BECAUSE

First-These patterns are drafted, not graded or measured by rule or thumb.

Second-They do not run small.

Third—They are cut high under the arms.

Fourth—They always fit perfectly.

Fifth—They are measured across the bust, not across the chest.

Sixth-Special patterns are provided for stouts.

Seventh-Home dressmakers insist upon having them. Eighth—They are economical in material and every new advanced style is included.

Miss Kent will answer any questions regarding these patterns, methods of measurements and the advantages of the guide chart. Any ladies who have ever had any trouble with these patterns are cordially invited, and Miss Kent will take your proper measurements for patterns and explain your difficulties.

LAURIE-DRYDEN.

Adams County (O.) Record.

A very charming but simple wedding was olemnized at the beautiful country home 'Maplewood" of Prof. F. C. Dryden, when his youngest daughter, Leona Ferne, and Samuel Dragoo Laurie were united in holy bonds of matrimony by Dr. W. E. Gross of Ripley, O., on Sunday afternoon, May 22d. When the hour of two-thirty arrived, the wedding party descended the broad stairway to the parlor below, where the sweet strains of Wagner's Wedding March were being rendered on the piano by Miss Nellie Lawwill of Manchester. The reception hall and parlor were banked with potted plants and flowers, the principal decorations being roses and ferns. The wedding was a very private affair owing to the serious illness of the bride's aunt, only the immediate family of the bride and groom being assembled. After the ceremony the happy bridal party, consisting of the bride and groom, Miss Nellie, sister of the bride, and Miss Nellie Lawwill, cousin of the bride, hurried over the terrace through showers of rice to a waiting cab and were quickly driven to Maysville, Ky., to catch the Westbound train. They will be at home to friends after May 30th. The bride is a very charming and attractive young lady. highly accomplished and of rare attainments, well and favorably known throughout the surrounding vicinity. The groom is the only son of E. W. Laurie, a prosperous farmer of Brown county, and is a young man of industrious habits and strict morals.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. J. R. Cooper of Court street, this city.
